

Application of Academic Majors
St. Andrews Presbyterian College

Students: Complete Section I of this form for the major you intend to complete.
Have the department chairperson of your intended major complete Section II, and return the form to the Registrar's Office.

Note: Any major declared, including interdisciplinary majors, must contain at least 30 credits of course work that are not part of any other major that the student may have declared. At their discretion, departments and programs may disallow any overlap for majors. Second (or third) majors declared within the same academic division as the student's first major must be submitted to the division council of that division for approval. In addition, interdisciplinary majors (Asian Studies, Behavioral Neuroscience, Forensic Science, and Public History) must contain a minimum of 30 credits that are not part of any other major or minor that the student has declared. A student with a Liberal Arts major may not major in a second major.
