

Facilities

DeTamble Library

DeTamble Library was constructed in 1964 through a legacy to the First Presbyterian Church of Winston-Salem from the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeTamble and funds from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation and the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation. The 16,384-square foot structure was enlarged in 1987 to 18,168 square feet with a gift from the Pew Foundation. The building also houses the College Archives, containing materials pertinent to the history of the College.

The James L. Morgan Liberal Arts Building

This building is constructed around two lovely courtyards, and houses the office of the president, the office of admissions and financial aid, other administrative and faculty offices, as well as classrooms, art studios, a metal foundry, the Morris Morgan Theatre, the College's computer center, a computer laboratory, four multi-media computer classrooms, and a snack bar.

Morris Morgan Theatre

The Morris Morgan Theatre was dedicated in 1997 in honor of Marcus Morrison Morgan (1927-1996). Mr. Morgan was a talented musician, successful businessman, patron of the arts and generous benefactor of the College. Located in the James L. Morgan Liberal Arts Building, the Morris Morgan Theatre serves as a venue for theatrical and musical events, as well as other special occasions in the life of the College and the local community.

Morgan-Jones Science Center

Morgan-Jones provides facilities for the College's science programs. The 20,400- square foot John Blue Laboratory dominates the upper level. The Logistics Center, three classrooms, a computer-networking laboratory, the Suzanne Trezevant Little Instrument Center, a biology and chemistry computer graphics laboratory, woodworking and glassblowing shops, and a greenhouse surround the lab. The lower level of Morgan-Jones houses faculty offices, the Anthropology Museum, a sterile culture laboratory, a computer classroom, the Psychology Laboratory, a computer laboratory and several classrooms. The Nucleus, a gathering place for science majors, is also located on the lower level.

The Vardell Building

The Vardell Building is named after Dr. Charles G. Vardell, first president of Flora Macdonald College. Vardell houses the Electronic Fine Arts Center, including a studio with digital mixing equipment as well as computer art and video recording facilities. In addition, Vardell contains faculty offices, classrooms, the Hagan Choral Room, the Lindsay Warren Gallery and music practice rooms.

The Katherine McKay Belk Bell Tower

The campus centerpiece, the Katherine McKay Belk Bell Tower houses a 16-bell carillon and is located on Chapel Island. It was given by former College Trustee Thomas M. Belk in honor of his wife, also a former College Trustee.

Pate Hall

Center for Academic Success and Student Health & Wellness

The building is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pate of Laurinburg, longtime benefactors of the College. One wing of this residence hall houses several services. These include: the duPont Center for Academic Success, funded by a grant from the Jessie Ball duPont Fund; the Student Health and Wellness Center, which houses the Campus Clinic and Counseling Services; and Disability Services, which assists disabled students with academic needs.

The William Henry Belk College Center

Overlooking the lake on the residential side of campus, the William Henry Belk College Center is the hub of campus social life. The Belk Center also houses the Carol Grotnes Belk Main Room, Knight Life (with Wi-Fi), the Chapel, a post office, the Student Bookstore, Knights Dining Hall, Career Services, Office of Student Affairs, Residential Services, Student Activities offices, and Campus Ministries and Service. The building is named in honor of former trustee William Henry Belk of Charlotte, NC.

Residence Halls

Eight residence halls, single- and multi-story, accommodate 96 to 112 students to a building. The rooms are arranged in suites that house 12 to 16 students each. Suites include bedrooms, a community bathroom, and a lounge. Laundry facilities are located in each residence hall. All residence halls have reception areas and common lounges.

The Physical Education Center

This multi-use building houses Harris Courts, the larger of which is a multipurpose gymnasium that seats 1,400. The indoor O'Herron swimming pool, a gift of the O'Herron family, is available year-round, as are racquetball and handball courts, a game room and the Ullrich Fitness Center. Other facilities include physical education staff offices provided by the McNair family, three classrooms, spacious locker rooms, and accommodations for visiting teams and officials. Outdoor athletics facilities include an all-weather track, Clark baseball field, a soccer field, a lacrosse field, a softball field, and a jogging trail. Connected to the Physical Education Center is Burriss Hall, current home for the Campus Safety and Security Offices and a student computer lab.

The St. Andrews Knight

The St. Andrews Knight, located in front of the physical education building, was a gift from Mr. Irwin Belk. Mr. Belk was one of the College's founding trustees, and is a well-known public servant, philanthropist and friend of higher education. The statue, sculpted by Jon D. Hair, was dedicated on April 25, 2002.

St. Andrews Equestrian Center

The St. Andrews Equestrian Center is located on 300 acres just one mile from campus. This facility includes a 120' x 300' covered arena, a 175' x 340' covered arena, four outdoor show and teaching arenas, a 120' x 250' dressage arena, a 100' x 125' indoor arena, a round pen, a hunter trials course, four barns with a total of 120 stalls, offices, classrooms and acres of pasture.
