

Change in Residence Status

If a student is granted permission to live off campus after the beginning of a semester, he or she is charged on a prorated basis for comprehensive fees according to the time spent in residence halls.