

Equestrian

St. Andrews is proud to be the home of a national champion equestrian program, open to both men and women for intercollegiate competition in hunter/jumper, dressage and western with the IHSA, ANRC, and IDA. Additionally students compete in USEF rated competitions. Students are encouraged to contact the equestrian staff with any questions about the competitive opportunities available.