

Women's Studies Courses

WS 101 Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies (3 credits)

An interdisciplinary, team-taught course that provides students with the tools necessary to critically analyze gender roles and how they are shaped by social, economic, religious, political and scientific influences.

WS 200 Feminist Theory (2-3 credits)

This course explores the historical development of feminist theory and its impact upon academic disciplines. Students are encouraged to begin investigating new methods of doing research.

WS 400 Senior Thesis Project (1-3 credits)

In consultation with designated faculty contacts, students will design and propose a senior project formulated to synthesize their study of feminist theory with their disciplinary interests.
